out the various concerns regarding the date of reconstitution and the term of the Council, it is submitted that - as the draft notification put up at this office, these particulars has been excluded when the draft of the notification was sent to the Legislation Branch the draft was returned explaining there, perhaps as it was this 15) The last of annexure A to the Dauangere city municipal Council was notified on 30 6 12 The new provision (amended) fixing the term of the Council as 4 years had not come into force as Dauangere C.C. on that date Under the old provisions the term was only 3 years Because of this peculiar situation there existing the term of the Council appears to have been purposely avoided to be mentioned in the notification 16) Further the notifying of the result of election is in accordance with the requirements of Rule 63 of the City Municipal Election Rules This Rule merely provides for the publication of the results of the election and does not make it- concerned to publish particulars of date of re-constitution and term of the Council office on the day following the expiry of the terms of office of the Old Council the Life of the Council as regulated by the Specific provision as the Act Since on the day the new Council assumes office i.e. on 17 52 the amended provision of Sec 15 of the Act free of the terms at 4 yrs. Comes as to force, the terms of the Council shall be 4 yrs without any mention being made as the notification on part of these facts, there appears to be no need to mention the date or terms as the notification and this may be no omission as suggested by the Counsel

18) The Law Secretary may also perhaps be consulted

Chas 9/7/52 19) Pl prepare an erratum

GENERAL SECTION

27) The term of office of the Councillors is governed by S 15 of the Act as amended by Section 8 of the Amending Act, 1951 (XXXVI of 1951) They hold office for a term of four years extensible by order of Govt to a term not exceeding five years. There is no specific mention in the Act as to when exactly the term of a councillor commences It is presumed that it commences the day immediately after the day when the term of the previous councillors expired In this case the term has commenced on 17th July 1952 the date of reconstitution

28) The references to these were omitted in the draft sent by the Legislative Dept Since the draft proposed by the administrative Secty could give the
